Committee Reports:

- Corrections: Bill O. reported that the corrections committee has a total of 339.16 Half year's rent was paid to the Meeting Place in the amount of $30.00. The committee also purchased a case pf Big Books totaling $237.02. The books were delivered to the State Work Release Center; CCC-L. The remaining balance is $72.14.
- The Corrections Committee is currently in conversation with CCC-L regarding the reconvening of the Tuesday night meeting.
- Treatment: Not present
- Hotline: Jerry reported there were 29 calls in March. Of the 29, four were for the office, one was for a ride and one was a difficult call due to several hang-ups during the call. Jerry is working on a flyer to pass around to the meetings for volunteer sign-up.
- PICPC: Cindy was present from PICPC and reported that only three members were able t attend the March meeting. PICPC has a very large number of old Grapevines that need to find new homes. If any group or committee is in need of some, PICPC will gladly provide some. The Mental Health Walk was discussed and those present believe it may take place this year. PICPC historically has a table at the Walk but further plans could not be made because there was not quorum.

- Special Events: Christy represented SE committee and shared that a St. Patrick's Day was a success. There was "a full house" she reported, and the event made $219.00 in profit. The next event is the Easter Egg Hunt 10:00 on April 16th at Van Dorn Park. Lunch will begin at 10:30; hot dogs and chips will be provided beginning at 10:30. Please bring a side dish. Speaker at 11:30.
- Central Office: Not present.
- Website: Charlie shared that there is inaccurate information regarding the on-line meetings. He asked that those who attend on-line meetings to send updates to the webmaster if they are closing or have closed so they can be removed from the list.
- District 3: Jim was in attendance; he is the Alt DCM. Current balance is $1,700.65. He was happy to announce that for the first time in over a year all officer positions have been filled.
- District 21: Brian W. Provided the current balance of: $1, 906.80. He was excited that seven people came to the last meeting. General Service Convention is ___ and the Unity Picnic will take place in August.
- District 22: Not present

New Business: Albert inquired as to whether or not Intergroup had an EIN number. Since Intergroup is not tax exempt, we do not need an EIN number.

Old business: None???

Motion to close; seconded.

7:45 meeting adjourned.
