

Intergroup minutes, January 26, 2023

Attendance: Charlie Brian Ben Taylor Chalice Cindy Christi Jerry Jack

Meeting started 6:31

Traditions read

December minutes read and approved with corrections.

Secretary—Minute read and approved

Treasury Report: Presented by Brandy to the group

- Balance: $11,350.28
- Contributions: $1,210.18
- Disbursements: $99.73
- Checkbook balance as of December 31, 2022 $$11,490.01
- Available after budgeted items $#,932.92

Committee Reports:

Corrections Committee – Bill O.

- Treatment: Chalice stated that 3 members have dropped. Four people remain. Still need a lot of volunteers for groups in treatment, New volunteer to help with vacated positions. Some volunteers have been going to treatment centers. Crisis Ctr the Bride and Center point –unmet need for volunteers. No sobriety commitment. Balance $30. Mtg. 3rd Wed. At the M.P. @6:30
- Hotline: Jerry said 23 calls this month “23 2 calls for volunteers and patched through on first try. :Most called re for information.
- PICPC: No present
- Special Events: Christi reported that holiday event was fabulous. Brought in $1800.00 6-800 over what was spent. St. Patrick’s Day flyer has been sent to email. March 18th corn beef and cabbage baked goods raffle. Speakers are McKenna and Steve Z Seth B 28th & S 3pm Alcathon had a much better turn out than last year. 150 @ the 5:15 mtg. 15 at the 2am mtg.
- Website: Charlie quiet one or two meeting changes a month. Sending bill to Brandy for URL webmaster4lincaa@gmail.com
- District 3: Steve S. Not present

- District 21: Brian was present to report met 3rd Sunday Jan.15 6 in attendance $2, 000.63. Voting items discussed State Fair vacate booth and purchasing laptop for Archivist—approved. n Voted to donate $100 West Regional in Omaha or food. Justin is on the committee. Volunteers needed. Dawn S. I Grapevine chair and also treasurer. Grapevine writing seminar this summer probably. Unity Picnic date not set.
- District 22: Not present
- Dist. 29: Not Present

GROUP REPORTS:

Ladies Big Book –Nothing to report Babysitting is drawing a good number. 10 kids sometimes 30 Zoom is 10-18

Jack from Young Peoples. Nothing to report. Moved to Calvary Methodist about 60 people attending.

Life Preservers-Albert came to meeting and said that meeting numbers were down but there has been an increase since the holidays. 25-30 participants. Jumped to 45 last week.

Sunday night Workshop—attendance is down. It seems the participation is shrinking. Meets @ 7:30 at 40th & C.

Honest Desire Women’s meeting at the Bridge 6:30

Old business: Budgets approved

New business: New church New Visions Calvary

Motion to close; seconded.

meeting adjourned.