

Corrections Committee – 6 May 2025

Chair: Vacant.

Treasurer: Bill O. Beginning balance of $53.21. Received second quarterly disbursement from Intergroup for $170.62. New balance is $223.83.

City/County Jail: Chris P. Chris is rotating between C, D, E, and F Pods, and is getting between five and twelve inmates at each meeting. Mike F. in N Pod reports having ten inmates at his most recent meeting.

Community Corrections Center, Lincoln (CCCL): Joe G. The Wednesday night men's meeting continues, with four or five inmates attending each week.

Reception and Treatment Center (RTC): Bill O. Meetings have occurred for the past two weeks, with twelve to fifteen inmates in attendance. Bill has learned that the inmates cannot bring their tablets to the meeting.

A,A, Corrections Pre-Release Program: Jim H. Russ at Central Office has agreed to allow us to use the Central Office address as the mailing address for the program. The Corrections Committee members will begin announcing the program at the meetings they attend, and Jim will announce it at the next Intergroup meeting. Jason S. has volunteered to help coordinate the program.

Old Business: Grapevines were delivered to Mike F. to take into City/County Jail. Some Grapevines were also delivered to CCCL.

New Business: A quick inventory of our literature has been made. We have 15 hardcover Big Books and zero softcovers. We also have 10 softcover 12 and 12s.

Next Meeting: Tuesday, 3 June 2025, at 6:30 p.m., Room 1C, The Meeting Place, 28th and S Street.
