Old Business

Discussion on Area website and Intergroup website. The Area committee liked the idea of collaborating. Intergroup Webmaster suggested a Sub-Domain - Intergroup would have its own page but connected to Area. Area Webmaster suggested Intergroup have their own website but it goes to Area's website. Determining the cost.

Area41's website is the only site that feed's Nebraska's meetings to The Meeting Guide app.

Intergroup Webmaster gets an alert that Area has made a change to the meeting but doesn't get informed on what the change was or is.

At this time, changes to meetings can continue to be sent to Intergroup Webmaster.

There was a situation where Meeting Guide app changes would appear to be changed by Central Office but that was GSO.

Groups represented at Intergroup liked the idea of one site or one place with all the info.

Intergroup Webmaster would like the Intergroup site - as well as Central Office - to be linked to Area.

The question was asked: if Intergroup's website went to area, would there be a need for an Intergroup Webmaster? Area could fill the gap but there's opportunities where an Intergroup Webmaster could be useful because it would be self-support and would be more hands-on and aware of what is happening with Intergroup. Area Committee Chair would like to continue to see an Intergroup Webmaster. A story was shared that Area 71 has simplified the process that every district in their area has a tech service position who can modify meeting changes and it would reflect on the app and website.

A question was asked: Why was this discussion brought up? 1) There's not a lot of rotating members for area / intergroup web committee so it would be good to have a backup plan or a plan for the future. 2) Some info was on a personal account so committees are attempting to a) create a conduit of info and b) not place too much responsibility on one individual. 3) There was an issue of a meeting(s) on two different lists and they weren't always the same.
