

Corrections Committee – 1 September 2025

Chair: Jim H.

Treasurer: Bill O. No activity. Balance remains $300.09.

City/County Jail: Connie K. reports that her Sunday meeting is going well, with 2 to 5 inmates in attendance each meeting. She took in the 12 & 12s she received at last month's meeting. Chris P. has nothing new to report. Mike F. has an injured knee, so he has not been taking meetings into the facility.

Community Corrections Center, Lincoln (CCCL): Lee Ann reports that her Sunday meeting is going well. She averages seven women per meeting. She took in the Big Books that she received from the Committee last month. Joe G. reports that the Wednesday night men's meeting continues to go well, with five to six inmates on average.

Reception and Treatment Center (RTC): Bill O. The facility is hard to get into at present due to staff shortages.

A,A, Corrections Pre-Release Program: Jim H. There are currently 7 men and 4 women signed-up for the program. Jim believes it's time to start contacting the local prison facilities to let them know the program is available.

Old Business: Jim presents the Committee with 50 copies of the flyer he presented last month.

New Business: Jim is reimbursed $38.07 for making copies of the flyer.

Preliminary discussions begin for a Corrections Workshop next year. The workshop will focus on two items: 1) increasing the number of A.A. volunteers going into correctional facilities, and 2) spreading the news about the Corrections Pre-Release Program.

Next Meeting: Tuesday, 7 October 2025, at 6:30 p.m., Room 1C, The Meeting Place, 28th and S Street.
